ABSTRACT

The Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program is a Federal aid program designed to provide financial assistance to those who need it to attend post-high school educational institutions. The amount of the Basic Grant is determined on the basis of the applicant's family assistance resources. The Basic Educational Grant award is a grant and, unlike a loan, does not have to be repaid. Eligibility criteria for the grant are summarized. A list of institutions is provided that includes all institutions whose students are eligible to receive Basic Grant awards. (SPG)

The Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program is a Federal aid program designed to provide financial assistance to those who need it to attend post-high school educational institutions. Basic Grants are intended to be the "floor" of a financial aid package and may be combined with other forms of aid in order to meet the full costs of education. The amount of the Basic Grant is determined on the basis of the applicant's family's financial resources. The Basic Educational Opportunity Grant award is a grant and, unlike a loan, does not have to be repaid. During the 1977-78 academic year the awards will range between $200 and $1400.

Students will be eligible for a grant if they meet all the following important criteria: (1) They have established their financial need by means of filing the 1977-78 Basic Grant application; (2) They will be enrolled in an undergraduate course of study and have not previously received a Bachelor's degree from any institution; (3) They will be enrolled on at least a half-time basis in an eligible program of study at one of the over 6,000 colleges, universities, vocational, technical, or career training schools which have been determined eligible for the Basic Grant Program; and, (4) They are U.S. citizens or permanent residents or are approved by the Immigration and Naturalization Service to be in the United States for other than a temporary purpose or are permanent residents of the Trust Territories of the Pacific Islands.

The list of institutions that follows includes all institutions whose students are eligible to receive Basic Grant awards. It is important to note that not all programs of study offered by these institutions are eligible under the Basic Grant Program. Students should contact the financial aid officer at their school regarding specific program eligibility.

In addition, this list reflects the eligibility status of schools as of July 1, 1977. Because the list of eligible schools changes throughout the year, students should be aware that some schools which are listed may become ineligible during the 1977-78 academic year and students who enroll in a school which loses its eligibility may not receive their Basic Grant awards. Similarly, there are other schools which are not included on this list which may become eligible during 1977-78. Therefore, if a student is interested in a school which is not included on this list, he or she should contact the school directly regarding its eligibility status or write to:

Division of Eligibility and Agency Evaluation
Bureau of Higher and Continuing Education
U.S. Office of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20202

The institutions listed as eligible for the Basic Grant Program are also eligible for these other Federal aid programs: College Work-Study (CWS), Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG), National Direct Student Loan (NDSL), and Guaranteed Student Loan (GSL). Another 2,500 institutions not on this list are also eligible for the Guaranteed Student Loan Program. It should be noted that the institutions on this list, though they are eligible for these other programs, are not all participating in the CWS, SEOG, and NDSL programs, and may not have allocations of funds for those programs for the 1977-78 academic year. If students have any questions regarding the availability of funds, application forms and/or information, or eligibility requirements for these other programs, they must contact the school directly.
